CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT ANDREA L. YOUNG

Chief Master Sergeant Andrea L. Young is the Command Chief of the 932d Airlift Wing, Scott Air Force Base, Illinois. She is the key enlisted advisor to the wing commander on operational effectiveness and proper utilization of enlisted members within the organization. She is responsible for the readiness, health, welfare and discipline of more than 1,000 Airmen in a variety of specialties within the medical, mission support, operations, and maintenance missions. She is dedicated to developing innovative leaders and multi-capable Airmen to meet national security and contingency requirements. Chief Young is a professional development facilitator and mentor for Airmen within the command.

Chief Young enlisted in the United States Air Force Reserve in May 2002 as a Health Services Manager. Throughout her career, she served in various career field capacities to include Expeditionary Medical Support, Aeromedical Evacuation, Enroute Patient Staging and Aerospace Medicine. Within each of these Air Force Medical Service missions, Chief Young managed day-to-day operations in organizing, equipping, training, and mobilizing Citizen Airmen to meet home station and expeditionary mission requirements. She advised squadron commanders and key leaders on all matters pertaining to training, morale and deployment readiness. Additionally, she led from the front through numerous readiness exercises and inspections, collaborating with multiple Air Force specialties and wing and joint agencies. Prior to her current position, Chief Young was the Group Senior Enlisted Leader for the 624th Regional Support Group at Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam, Hawaii.

In 2009, Chief Young became an Enlisted Facilitator for Air Force Reserve Command's Professional Development Center. She spearheaded leadership development and mentoring initiatives at Wing, Numbered Air Force and Command levels. Chief Young deployed in January 2015 to Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar, in support of Operations ENDURING FREEDOM and FREEDOM'S SENTINEL.
